

AQA GCSE English Language

Paper 1: Explorations in creative reading and writing

Mark Scheme

Q1. Read again the first part of the Source from lines 1 to 6.

List four things from this part of the text about the scene in the street. [4 marks]

Give 1 mark for each point about the scene in the street:

- responses must be true, and only drawn from lines 1 to 6 of the text
- responses must relate to the girl
- students may quote or paraphrase
- a paraphrased response covering more than one point should be credited for each point made – though paraphrased responses must demonstrate evidence of identification of information that is specific to the focus of the question as required by AO1
- responses that copy the whole section of the text from lines 1 to 6 verbatim should not be credited any marks as this does not provide any evidence of identification of information that is specific to the focus of the question as required by AO1

Indicative content; students may include:

- There are a lot of people in the street
- There are photographers behind barriers controlled by the police
- It is snowing
- Not much is happening ('the watchers filled the waiting time')
- The photographers are waiting for something to happen

Or any other valid responses you are able to verify by checking the Source.

Q2. Look in detail at this extract from lines 9 to 24 of the Source. (Extract in paper.)

- slight use of irony to describe the behaviour of some onlookers (e.g. the man who takes a photograph of every balcony)

Q3. You now need to think about the whole of the Source.

This extract is from the opening of the novel.

AO2 content may include the effect of ideas such as:

- over the course of the extract we gradually realise that this is a crime scene
- use of omniscient narrator to give a sense of all onlookers' reactions
- shift in focus from photographers to police to members of the public
- hints that the person who fell from the balcony was well known/famous (presence of paparazzi and the group of young girls with flowers)
- use of fragmented dialogue to create a sense of mystery/confusion
- overall effect of the extract as the opening to a novel

Q4. Focus this part of your answer on the second part of the Source from line 16 to the end.

A student, having read this section of the text, said: ‘The writer makes the reader feel just as confused as the people in the scene.’

To what extent do you agree? [20 marks]

Level 0 No marks	No relevant comments offered in response to the statement, no impressions, no evaluation.

AO4 content may include the evaluation of ideas such as:

- use of fragmented dialogue
- the identity of the body is unknown, but there are hints she was famous
- lack of detail given around what exactly has happened
- narration is not focalised through a specific person/character, so the reader feels detached

Q5. You are going to enter a creative writing competition.

Your entry will be judged by a panel of people of your own age.
